The Presidents Report

Welcome to this, the 1st Issue of the NJPPSA E-Mail Newsletter. Created to keep you the valued member of the New Jersey Professional Process Servers Association informed on a regular basis of the happenings of the NJPPSA. As soon as I returned from a Golf Vacation to beautiful Tampa, Florida I put the following finishing touches on this newsletter. It was great to see everyone at the Annual Meeting on January 28th. As many of you know this was also the forum for our elections. I look forward to leading this Association in 2006 and with the support of an anxious Board I know we can turn 2006 into an eventful year. I am in the process of setting our meeting schedule & will have that information in the next newsletter, March 10th. Until then if anyone has questions, comments, suggestions or criticisms please contact me at tmack@turbocourier.com. I will get back to you promptly.

Take care & keep serving. Tim.

News from the Streets (and other sources)

Are you going to NAPPS this year?The dates have been set, the details are filtering in, all that's left is how many will register for the 24th Annual Conference, May 18-21, 2006 at the Marriott Austin at the Capitol, Austin, Texas.

You're IndictedForget about text spam. Cell phone users in South Korea can now be indicted for a crime over the phone. Prosecutors are considering indicting people via text messages instead of sending legal notices on paper. They estimate the new process will save them more than 160 million won ($158,000) per year. Source www.reuters.com

Annual Meeting & Election of Officers

The Annual Meeting & Election of Officers for the New Jersey Professional Process Servers Association was held on Friday January 27th at Mario's Trattoria in Union, New Jersey. With about 30 in attendance the night was filled with excellent food, drink, networking and goodwill. The attendance was a cross section of the State, from the Jersey Shore to the more populated and hectic North. We were also pleased to have several of our New York Associate members attend and also had one of our members from Texas!

The 2006 Board of Directors was sworn in at this meeting. Congratulations to Timothy Mack, President, Donna-Marie Carlucci, Vice-President, James Hipple, Secretary, Ethel Smith, Treasurer and Directors Howard Appel, Jennifer Lapperelli and John Perez. The Board looks forward to a full agenda for the year.

This meeting was made possible with the hard work of Donna Carlucci and Ethel Smith. A hearty thank you to them both. The venue for the meeting is a wonderful restaurant. Hopefully we'll have a packed house for the next Annual Meeting at the end of this year.
